Conference Overview

This conference will provide a state-of-the-art update on the multimodality management of brain and skull base tumors including advances in imaging and treatment. MEDICAL Therapy: A wide array of immunotherapies and targeted therapies are now available for both primary and secondary brain tumors. SURGICAL Therapy: Technical advances in navigation and endoscopy have helped improve surgical safety and efficacy and facilitated use of keyhole approaches for many brain tumors. RADIOTHERAPY: More focused radiosurgery and radiotherapy are providing safer treatments for tumors unable to be effectively treated with surgery or medical therapy alone.

Conference Objectives

At the conclusion of this activity, participants should be able to:

- Discuss the incidence of benign and malignant intracranial tumors
 - Describe the importance of new imaging modalities for diagnosing and treating brain tumors
 - Recognize the various clinical presentations of intracranial tumors
 - Identify histopathological features of benign and malignant intracranial tumors
 - Define new and emerging immuno- and targeted therapies for gliomas and brain metastases
 - Discuss the current surgical management of intracranial meningiomas and schwannomas
 - Recognize the multimodality management of sinonasal malignancies and chordomas
 - Discuss the concept and application of keyhole brain tumor removal
 - Identify indications for stereotactic radiotherapy and radiosurgery for brain tumors

Conference Topics

- Epidemiology of Intracranial Tumors
- Brain Tumor Imaging
- Headaches and Seizures as Manifestations of Brain Tumors
- Visual Pathway and Brain Tumors
- Neuropathology of Primary Brain Tumors
- Glioma and Metastatic Brain Tumor Multimodality Therapies
- Meningioma Surgery
- Vestibular and Trigeminal Schwannomas Management
- Keyhole Brain and Skull Base Tumor Removal
- Stereotactic Radiosurgery and Radiotherapy
